CLUB NIGHT AT LOYOLA COLLEGE

Co-educational clubs are on the upswing at Loyola College. More and more men and women students are learning the skills of fencing, badminton, aikido, judo, karate, modern dance and sky diving. Many of you probably recall our most successful sports night last year as reported in the Sunday Express (see enclosed sheet).

This year a Co-educational Club Night is being organized on Thursday, February 4th commencing at 7:30 P.M. Parents and friends have been invited to attend the evening which would be most interesting, entertaining and educational.

Besides the demonstrations of the various clubs at Loyola, we have an added attraction of a demonstration of the Chinese martial art "Tai-Chi-Chuan".

The tentative program is as follows:

7:30 P.M.	Majorettes
7:35	Archery commences
7:40	Judo demonstration
7:50	Modern Dance Club performs
8:00 P.M.	Fencing
8:00	Women's Ice Hockey - Dawson College Daisies vs. Loyola Tommies
8:10	Aikido demonstration
8:20	Karate demonstration
8:30	Modern Dance
8:40	Badminton Commences vs. S.G.W.U.
8:45	Sky Diving Demonstration
8:55	Tai-Chi-Chuan Demonstration
9:00	Majorettes
9:00	Refreshments in Lecture Room for parents, press & participants.
9:20	Final period - Women's Ice Hockey

This is a unique opportunity to see Loyola Students in action and have fun too. Have you ever seen a 'Tommie' on ice, or a sky diver in full gear?? Now's your chance!
